

About Piccola Roma

Bishops Waltham is a thriving market town with a wealth of unusual and independent shops, cafes and restaurants. There is a strong community feeling here and an abundance of things to do for local residents and visitors.

Piccola Roma was born because we love the town but felt there was room for an authentic, reasonably priced, family friendly Italian restaurant. The owner, Erasmo, is from Rome but has been in England for many years with his wife Charlie and family. The head chef, Norberto, is from Genova but has also lived in England for a long time.

Our aim is to make our guests feel they are being welcomed into a little slice of Italy...evoking memories of holidays, sunshine and above all, great food!

More than just a restaurant

Although good food is our passion, did you know that we also do Italian lessons every week? We also have regular wine tastings, cookery lessons and tasting menu evenings and do pizza making parties for children and local community groups.

About Us

We are a small restaurant with a big heart. We source the best ingredients and take pride in each and every dish we prepare. Your takeaway will be cooked to order by our Italian chefs so if you have any special requests just ask.

On a weekend evening, we can be very busy so it is best to phone your order through at the start of the evening. Just phone 01489 892502.

We make a great venue for parties, whether it is a birthday, celebration or anniversary.

On Sundays and Mondays you can hire the restaurant out for your own special party. No extra charge but a minimum of 20 guests.
